Looking for a home that puts you close to town and Coker College? This charming ranch-style residence might be just what you need! Featuring three spacious bedrooms and two full baths, this home offers comfort and convenience. Step onto the large screened-in back porch, perfect for relaxing, and enjoy the added benefit of a detached two-car garage. A paved driveway leads either to the side entrance or directly to the garage for easy access. The beautiful hardwood floors, in excellent condition, enhance the warmth and character of the living room. Well-maintained and ready for its next chapter, this home offers a solid foundation—with just a few updates, it has the potential to become a fantastic starter home. Beyond the home itself, the lot extends to the corner, offering additional yard space and the bonus of no neighbors on one side—providing an extra touch of privacy. Don't miss out on this opportunity—reach out to your realtor today to schedule a showing! This charming home won't stay on the market for long.
