Classic charm meets modern comfort in this stately all-brick home, ideally located in the heart of Lexington. Situated on a beautifully landscaped 0.8-acre corner lot, this 1.5-story residence provides exceptional indoor-outdoor living with a sparkling inground pool, expansive deck, fenced backyard, and a separate heated and cooled 2-bay garage—giving you a total of four garage bays. An extended dual driveway provides ample parking for guests or additional vehicles with ease. Step onto the inviting front porch and into a home filled with timeless architectural details, including plantation shutters, gleaming hardwood floors, soaring ceilings, custom millwork, built-ins, and designer lighting throughout. The granite and stainless steel kitchen features a spacious bar and eat-in area—perfect for everyday living or entertaining guests. Renovated bathrooms add a touch of modern style and function to the home's classic layout. The split floorplan includes a large great room with gas log fireplace, a formal dining room, and a sunny Carolina room that opens to your private backyard oasis. The main-level primary suite features comfort and privacy with a walk-in closet and beautifully updated ensuite bath. Three additional bedrooms are also located on the main floor, thoughtfully arranged to maximize functionality. Upstairs, a spacious fifth bedroom with ensuite bath provides flexibility as a teen suite, guest quarters, or bonus room. Zoned for award-winning Lexington One schools and conveniently close to shopping, dining, and Lake Murray, this home combines luxury, livability, and location.
