Step into a piece of South Carolina history with this charming Victorian-style home on the National Historic Registry. Located in the quiet town of Salley, this 3-bedroom, 2-bath home offers historic character with modern updates—and is still just a short drive to Columbia or Aiken. A beautiful wrap-around front porch sets the tone before you even step inside—perfect for relaxing and enjoying the peaceful surroundings. As you enter, you're welcomed by a spacious living area with hardwood floors and tall ceilings. To the right, a front bedroom is currently being used as a dining room, showcasing the home's flexible layout. Down the hall, you'll find a remodeled kitchen with granite countertops that flows into a versatile bonus room—perfect as a formal dining area, den, or office. To the left of that a large laundry room that will lead you to the backyard. This home has two additional spacious bedrooms including a true primary suite with a remodeled bathroom featuring a clawfoot tub and walk-in shower. The second large bedroom also has access to the second full bath, making it ideal as a second master suite. Outside, the backyard includes two large storage buildings—great for hobbies, storage, or a workshop. The home also has front and side yard irrigation. The HVAC system was just replaced in November 2024, providing peace of mind and energy efficiency. Historic charm, modern comfort, and small-town living—this home has it all. Being sold strictly AS-IS. Disclaimer: CMLS has not reviewed and, therefore, does not endorse vendors who may appear in listings.
