Nestled on a beautifully maintained 0.73-acre lot, this private and peaceful property is a true hidden gem for nature lovers and hobbyists alike. Surrounded by lush greenery and an abundance of fruit trees—including apple, blueberry, and plum, just to name a few—this home offers a serene, orchard-like setting that's perfect for gardening, outdoor living, or simply enjoying your own personal slice of paradise. The charming 2-bedroom, 2-bathroom home features comfortable living spaces and a layout that embraces natural light and the tranquility of its surroundings. For those needing extra space for projects or storage, you'll appreciate the large wired workshop, ideal for woodworking, crafting, or running a home-based business, as well as an additional storage building for all your tools and equipment. With well water, a sprinkler system, and mature landscaping throughout the property, maintaining your private retreat is both cost-effective and convenient. Whether you're looking for a peaceful full-time residence or a weekend getaway with room to grow, this unique property offers the perfect blend of privacy, productivity, and potential.
