This house has a full guest suite – 1 bedroom, bath, kitchen/dining area and living room. This suite also has it's own exterior door. The house has beautiful wood floors. The large living room was built large enough to be a formal dining area and living room combination. Large foyer with a coat closet. The den has great natural light and a fireplace with built-in shelving on each side. The kitchen has a unique layout that works great in this house and has space for an eat-in kitchen table. There is a wide hallway from the kitchen to the side door. This space is the laundry room and also a large pantry closet. This main part of the house has the other 3 bedrooms and two more baths.
