Though the bottom floor isn't completely an open concept space, the kitchen is open to both the breakfast nook and family room, and its position in the back corner of the home serves as a natural divide between the major living spaces of this home. An island and peninsula in the kitchen provide extra space for seating. There is a full bath downstairs, as well as a coat closet beneath the staircase. The three guest rooms upstairs are about the same size and share a hall bathroom. Laundry is also located upstairs, as is a linen closet. The spacious owner's suite has an attached bath, which includes an additional linen closet, and large walk-in closet.
